Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1,6-8,10-13,18-20,22-25,30-32,36,41-43 have been considered but they are not persuasive. The Examiner has considered the Applicant's argument that the cited prior art of Crocker fails to qualify as prior art of the present application. The Examiner respectfully submits that Crocker does indeed claim benefit to the provisional date of July 11, 2003, according to the Bibliographic Data Sheet dated 1/18/2006 and therefore does constitute as prior art.

Claims 1,6-8,10-13,18-20,22-25,30- 32,36,41-43 stands fully rejected.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21 (2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1,6-8,10-13,18-20,22-25,30-32,36,41-43 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Crocker et al. (Crocker), US Pub. No. 2005/0009537.

Regarding claims 1,13,25,36, Crocker discloses a cellular phone system having a base station, the digital cellular phone comprising:

- a first user registering the digital cellular phone system and keeping contact with the base station, the first user belonged to a group;
- the first user registering an entry notice function to the digital cellular phone system; and
- informing the first user when a second user belonged to the group registers the digital cellular phone system and keeps contact with the base station, wherein when the first user is informed that the second user registers the base station, the second user is informed switching to a wireless system and is kept contact thereby (page 2 [0023-0024]),
- wherein the first user has a cellular phone for registering the cellular phone system and keeping contact with the base station and the cellular phone has an identification function of the base station serving for making sure an identity when the second user registers the wireless system (page 2 [0024] and page 3 [003])
- wherein inherently the identification function comprises inputting a password by the second user (i.e., reads on accessing buddy list), wherein the identification function comprises identifying a subscriber identity module of the second use (page 3 [0030- 0033]).

Regarding claim 6, Crocker discloses the digital cellular phone system of claim 1, wherein the first user is informed by a short message service (SMS) (page 3 [0030-0033]).

Regarding claim 7, Crocker discloses the digital cellular phone system of claim 1, wherein the digital cellular phone system informs the first user location information of the second user (page 3 [0030-0033]).

Regarding claim 8, Crocker discloses the digital cellular phone system of claim 7, wherein when the first user is informed the registration and location information of the second user, the second user is informed switching to a wireless system and the wireless system and the location information of the second user serve a contact between the first and the second users (page 3 [0030-0033]).

Regarding claim 10, Crocker discloses the digital cellular phone system of claim 9, wherein the cellular phone adjusts a transmission power of the wireless system by the location information of the second user (page 3 [0030-0033]).

Regarding claim 11, Crocker discloses the digital cellular phone system of claim 1, wherein the digital cellular phone system sets the group of the first user as a group of registration entry notice function when the first user registers the entry notice function.

Regarding claim 12, Crocker discloses the digital cellular phone system of claim 1, wherein the digital cellular phone system modifies a parameter of the entry notice function of the group therein when the first user registers the entry notice function (page 3 [0030-0033]).

Regarding claim 13, Crocker discloses a digital cellular phone system having a base station and a second base station near thereto, the digital cellular phone system comprising:

- a first user registering the digital cellular phone system and keeping contact with the base station, the first user belonged to a group; the first user registering an entry notice function to the digital cellular phone system; and informing the first user when a second user belonged to the group registers the digital cellular phone system and keeps contact with the base station (page 3 [0030-0033]).

Regarding claim 18, Crocker discloses the digital cellular phone system of claim 13, wherein the first user is informed by a short message service (SMS) (page 3 [0030-0033]).

Regarding claim 19, Crocker discloses the digital cellular phone system of claim 13, wherein the digital cellular phone system informs the first user location information of the second user (page 3 [0030-0033]).

Regarding claim 20, Crocker discloses the digital cellular phone system of claim 19, wherein when the first user is informed the registration and location information of the second user, the second user is informed switching to a wireless system and the wireless system and the location information of the second user. serve a contact between the first and the second users (page 3 [0030-0033]).

Regarding claim 22, Crocker discloses the digital cellular phone system of claim 21, wherein the cellular phone adjusts a transmission power of the wireless system by the location information of the second user (page 3 [0034]).

Regarding claim 23, Crocker discloses the digital cellular phone system of claim 13, wherein the digital cellular phone system sets the group of the first user as a group of registration entry notice function when the first user register the entry notice function (page 3 [0030-0033]).

Regarding claim 24, Crocker discloses the digital cellular phone system of claim 13, wherein the digital cellular phone system modifies a parameter of the entry notice function of the group therein when the first user register the entry notice function (page 3 [0030-0033]).

Regarding claim 25, Crocker discloses a cellular phone adapted to register a entry notice function of a digital cellular phone system, the digital cellular phone system having a base station, the cellular phone serving for registering the digital cellular phone system and keeping contact with the base station, a first user of the cellular phone belonged to a group, the cellular phone informed when the cellular registers an entry notice function of the digital cellular phone system and a second user belonged to the group registers the digital cellular phone system and keeps contact with the base station (page 3 [0030-0033]).

Regarding claim 30, Crocker discloses the cellular phone of claim 25, wherein the cellular phone is informed by a short message service (SMS) (page 3 [0030-0033]).

Regarding claim 31, Crocker discloses the cellular phone of claim 25, wherein the digital cellular phone system informs the first user location information of the second user (page 3 [0030-0033]).

Regarding claim 32, Crocker discloses the cellular phone of claim 31, wherein when the cellular phone is informed the registration and location information of the second user, the second user is informed switching to a wireless system and the wireless system and the location information of the second user serve a contact with the another cellular phone the second user (page 3 [0030-0033]).

Regarding claim 41, Crocker discloses the cellular phone of Claim 36, wherein the cellular phone is informed by a short message service (SMS). (page 3 [0030-0033]).

Regarding claim 42, Crocker discloses the cellular phone of claim 36, wherein the digital cellular phone system informs the first user location information of the second user (page 3 [0030-0033]).

Regarding claim 43, Crocker discloses the cellular phone of claim 42, wherein when the cellular phone is informed the registration and location information of the second user, the second user is informed switching to a wireless system and the wireless system and the location information of the second user serve a contact with the another cellular phone the second user (page 3 [0030-0033]).

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
